

MONTEREY HOUSE CONCERT – APRIL 7

Countercurrent

Countercurrent is a contra dance and folk music duo from western Washington, featuring driving guitar, foot percussion, lyrical fiddle, and harmony vocals. Over 8 years of playing together, Brian Lindsay and Alex Sturbaum, also of Gallimaufry fame, have developed a style that brings forth the pure joy and nuance in the music they play. The combination of Brian's technical and tasteful tune-smithing with Alex's punchy rhythms and gifted song-writing is not to be missed. As they spread their music across the northwest and beyond, Countercurrent continues to push their own boundaries with new compositions, lively arrangements, lush harmonies, and driving grooves.
